Mount St. Mary's

Thraugh these pages we recall memories of our last year; the difficult, happy, salemn, and exciting activities. Situatians that can change the whale caurse af o life are mamentarily savared and saon fargatten, ta be recalled ond enjoyed upan suggestian. The impartant things are here: the peaple, the places, and the events. Mount '61 captures the significance of these memories.

Mary Chapel

The nucleus of the compus is Mary Chopel. The nucleus of ony Mount Groduote's life—her love and service of God. Through her foith o Mountie is guided religiously, intellectuolly, ond sociolly.

This view of "the Circle" features St. Joseph's Hall, which houses both administrative and departmental facilities. Overlooking part of the city is the lovely colonnade.

At the lower section of the compus is the Morion Art Building. Charles Willord Coe Memoriol Lib-rory ond Brody Holl odd further beauty to the Mount's orchitecturol design.

Reloxing is the potio between Corondolet ond Brody Holls. An ottroction to mony is the pool, which is located next to the tennis courts. The new parlor comforts the residence students collers.

Senior Class of 1961

Senior yeor is o speciol time — full of fun of nights out, closs porties ond the theotre; senior ponels, the morriage seminar, the Surprise Breokfost, ond many other fine memories. There ore plons to be mode for the future: weddings, coreers—getting involved in life. From informol tolk-sessions in the smoker to the excitement of the prom, there is on evosive feeling of lost-timeness. There is o slow reolizotion thot this is almost o time gone. But there is olso the onticipation of the time to come.
